FEARS OF A RISING IN INDIA.

Voiced in an Alarmist Article in the London Spectator.

Next Thursday is the Anniversary of the Memorial Mutiny.

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, May 5.—The Spectator to-day publishes an alarmist article in regard to India, and the possibility of serious trouble in the country.

The Spectator refers to the despatch from Calcutta, published in The Times on April 17, announcing that much excitement prevailed in North Behar owing to the fact that all the mango trees in several districts had been found smeared with a mixture of mud and of the hairs of a wild animal.

The officials were perplexed, some considering that the smearing of the trees was a secret sign connected with the cow protection movement, and this and other movements going on in North Behar disturbed and puzzled the Government officials.

In its reference to The Times despatch, The Spectator recalls that next Thursday is the anniversary of the Indian mutiny, and that this anniversary has been preceded by a mysterious distribution of cakes throughout Behar and the Northwest.

According to The Spectator there is something stirring among the Nepalese priests, and it is feared that it portends another serious rising in India.

The rising, if it takes place, according to The Spectator, will be due to the dissatisfaction which exists on account of the rulings of the Opium Commission, increased taxes, the cow question and other matters which have caused deep mutterings among the populace.

AMERICAN TROTTERS SEIZED.

Owner Kneels Wins German Prizes Under a False Entry.

(By Associated Press.) BERLIN, May 5.—A sensation has been caused in German sporting circles by the seizure of three trotting mares belonging to an American named Kneels.

It appears that Kneels has been winning a number of trotting matches in this country, and that he has won prizes in money to the amount of 2,500 marks with Bethel, one of his mares, by running her under the name of Nellie Kneels, and declaring that she had never before won a match.

The discovery of this fraud led to the seizure of the three mares owned by Kneels just as they were about to be shipped to Vienna.

STABBED A BROTHER. MOVES ON TO NEWARK.

John O'Brien Slashes Frank Seven Times with a Knife.

Pursued Him Around a Truck at a Street Corner.

The Assailant Escapes, but Four Witnesses Are Caught.

Frank O'Brien, nineteen years old, of 456 West Forty-first street, is confined at Roosevelt Hospital in a critical condition with seven stab wounds, inflicted by his brother John, seventeen years old, during a street fight at 11:30 o'clock last night.

John managed to escape, but four alleged eye-witnesses of the stabbing affray were arrested by Detective Dale, of the West Forty-seventh street squad. They were John Sullivan, seventeen years old, of 526 West Forty-fifth street; James Bowler, eighteen years, of 360 West Forty-seventh street; Joseph McCoy, seventeen years, of 734 Eleventh avenue, and Joseph Atkins, same age, of 450 West Forty-first street.

The fight started in Thomas Connors's stable in West Forty-fifth street, near Tenth avenue. The O'Brien brothers are peddlers, and some words arose between them about money. It led to blows, and Frank, who appeared to be the stronger, drove his brother out to the street.

There the fight was resumed, and after several more blows were exchanged, John drew a pocket knife and took to the streets. Frank followed him closely, and Frank then ran away, pursued by his brother. John chased around a truck at the corner of Forty-fifth street and Tenth avenue followed.

The chase continued for a few minutes. Frank finally stumbled, and, before he could regain his footing, John, who was armed with a knife, struck him seven times in his brother's side, breast, neck and face.

The wounds in the left side is considered the most serious by the physicians at the hospital.

John was placed at once under the hospital by Sullivan and Bowler, when Policeman Finnegan met them. O'Brien later invited him to take him at every step he took. Finnegan accompanied them to the hospital where the four witnesses were detained by Justice Voorhis, at the Yorkville Police Court.

GIRLS DROVE A BARON AWAY.

He brought letters of introduction which secured him entrance to several clubs and to a few houses on Nob Hill.

He became a conspicuous figure in the social set, and received many attentions, particularly in German circles. But now the tall man of many titles has fled. He left last night, and his reported destination is New Orleans.

The Examiner prints an interview in which the Baron declared that he was in the city for a few days, and that he was going to San Francisco for the importunities of the city's society girls, who were anxious to exchange the hearts, hands and fortunes for his title and castle on the Rhine. Fabulous fortunes were even laid out for him by the girls.

When the society women would finally give him no peace and his morning mail was being to be dreaded, the Baron fled the city.

Fitzgerald's "Army" Leaves New York in Martial Order.

Lieut. Swift Temporarily Deserts and Travels by Train.

Sixteen Detectives Scattered Along the Line of March.

The Fitzgerald contingent of Coxey's army started from this city for Newark at 10 o'clock this morning.

At the last moment Supt. Byrnes granted the "army" a permit to march. The permit called for only sixty men and limited the route from 64 East Fourth street to Second avenue to Twenty-second street, thence to the North River and the ferry in Twenty-third street.

There were only fifty-one men in line, Morrison I. Swift, Fitzgerald's lieutenant, was not among them. He always travels by rail. When he rejoins the army in Newark, it is stated on good authority, he will deliver a speech which he has prepared, which will begin with the words:

"We are travel-stained and weary tollers."

The other missing men were said to be laid up for repairs, having collided with two many scholars, it is believed, while cruising along the Bowery last night. Before meeting at the Labor Lyceum, in East Fourth street, the "army" took their breakfast of beef steaks, coffee and bread and butter this morning.

Fitzgerald proposed that thanks be voted to F. W. Miller through whose efforts their stay in New York had been made so pleasant.

I propose that the thanks be voted to the whole People's party of this city," shouted "Old Sport."

And to Miller especially," shouted another voice.

All except "Old Sport" voted affirmatively. He shook his head threateningly, stamped his foot and waved his arms, as he exclaimed:

"I'm for collectivity, now and for all time. I bear returned to the 'army' but I believe in solidarity."

He was told to shut up, but did so only after having invited him to take a drink to show he harbored no resentment.

Policemen Langmuir and Mayer, of the East Fifth street station, marched in the case he had refused to obey, and were sixteen detectives from Newark were scattered along the line of march.

There were only two amusing incidents along the way. One was when the "army" drew up about the corner of the head of the army. The driver kept up a running fire of comments on the "army."

"Get inside, where you belong."

The other incident was when a hearse drove past the head of the line and somebody invited "Old Sport" to step in. This morning C. Kuerschner, a shoe-maker, of 111 West Fourth street, took Fitzgerald $35.00, the proceeds of last night's meeting of the Socialist Labor party.

All the Boston newspaper men who accompanied them, except "Hope-to-Die" and "Old Sport," were taken to the "army" and lodged along in solitary grandeur a little while in the city.

NEWARK, N. J., May 5.—About sixty members of Fitzgerald's "army" arrived here last night. They carried a number of flags and attracted a great crowd as they marched through the streets. The company stopped at the corner of Broad and Market streets, but they were not allowed to march further.

After a short halt the detachment moved towards the "Hill" section of the city, followed by a crowd of boys and men.

COXEYITES REFUSE WORK.

Unwilling to Change Washington Camp and Earn $500.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—An enterprising real-estate man here has offered to set the Coxeyites at work. He has a tract of land about three and a half miles distant from the city, which he desires to have cleared of underbrush and made ready for subdivision. It is a pretty spot and much money is to be made.

The owner, Dr. G. P. Dehner, offered to pay them $500 if they would clear the ground. The proposition, it was said, was not to be made until they moved the camp so far from the city, and the offer was rejected.

Morrison's Men in Trenton, Ill.

(By Associated Press.) TRENTON, Ill., May 5.—Gen. Morrison and his 300 Coxeyites arrived in this city at 1:15 o'clock last night, having marched from St. Louis, thirty miles west of here, since Wednesday morning. A band met the contingent on the outskirts of the city and escorted them to the hotel.

The men all looked fresh. Not a man has attempted to break camp. A meeting was held, and Morrison last night. The army will leave for Carlyle, twenty miles east, to-day.

Commonwealthers on Coxey's Arrest.

(By Associated Press.) GUTHRIE, O. T., May 5.—The Oklahoma division of the Commonwealth held a grand rally last night. About 400 soldiers were present. A resolution was adopted deploring "the unlawful arrest of the Washington authorities" in preventing Coxey from speaking, and calling for immediate action on the part of Congress to bring a lawful judgment upon the parties concerned in the alleged outrage.

Scattered Into Squads of Tramps.

(By Associated Press.) TACOMA, Wash., May 5.—The Northwestern industrial army has developed into an unorganized body of tramps. They are scattered to the number of about 800 between Puyallup and the summit of the Cascades, waiting for a chance to sneak East on blind baggage cars and brake beams.

All hope of a free ride has been abandoned. The provisions in the camp are very low.

TRIAL OF COXEY LEADERS.

Not in the Case to Show Whether Browne Was Clandestine.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—There was a falling off in the attendance of Congressmen on the trial of the Coxey leaders, which was resumed in Judge Miller's Police Court to-day.

First on the witness stand came Officer Law, of the police force, who had accompanied the procession. According to his story, both Browne and Coxey had run across the grass and through the shrubbery. Two mounted police had stopped Browne by the time he had arrived within twenty-five yards of the Capitol steps, and after a struggle had overpowered him, the witness testifies.

James H. Forester, a clerk in the District Attorney's office, testified that he saw Browne and Coxey at the time they were being taken to the police station.

Judge Miller then recalled Officer Law, who had been several questions. Representative Pence rose and created something of a sensation by declaring that it was evident that Browne and Coxey had been taken to the police station by force.

Big Johnstown Plant to Resume. (By Associated Press.) JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 5.—Many departments of the Cambria Iron Company will resume operations on Monday morning next. The works are expected to run full blast, and it is the case nearly 6,000 men will be employed.

News of the Miners' Strike.

Four hundred men at Clyde & Gillette's mine in Illinois are willing to join the ranks of the strikers.

At Maunton, Ill., the Mayor and several hundred citizens secured the miners who were willing to work to mine No. 67, and guaranteed them protection.

Strikers who visited Kansas and Texas Mine No. 6 yesterday afternoon at Macon, Mo., were unsuccessful in their efforts to force the miners out.

The miners in the Indian Territory, who number about 10,000, are still on strike. They have been peaceful and quiet until within the past few days. Now they are making disturbances, which have resulted in the calling out of the entire Indian police force.

The reports received from the mining districts of Illinois in the vicinity of St. Louis show that but six miners are now being employed.

A conference of delegates from all mines in the West was held at St. Louis to-day to take action in regard to going out.

The men have left the Ashland (Ky.) Coal and Railroad Mine to-day. The miners at Rush, the other end of the strike, will still be on strike to-day to decide what they will do.

At a mass-meeting of the miners in the Wellhead (W. Va.) section to-day it was decided that all should come out to-night, and join the general strike. This means the closing of four glass factories and several other factories, employing 2,000 men. It will also mean a part of the Pan Handle Railroad's coal supply.

The miners of the Kettle Creek Coal Company, near Lehigh, Pa., struck the Kanawha, and Andover, New River, W. Va., all mines that are working now, will probably go out in a day or two. A big meeting was held at Montgomery, Ala., to-day, and the miners there are on strike.

Marshal Shoots Miner.

(By Associated Press.) DULUTH, Minn., May 5.—Marshal A. L. Free tried to suppress a slight disturbance among some miners at Mountain Iron last evening, when Mat Olson threatened him with a revolver. Free promptly shot him in the abdomen and he will probably die.

Word was sent to the strikers and a mob of 150 started for Mountain Iron with the avowed intention of lynching Free. Sheriff Shawey ordered out the militia and they took charge of Free and removed him to the town. The strikers are very indignant over this.

The latest advice received here from Mesaba Range were to the effect that the additional force of militia reached Mountain Iron ahead of the mob. Up to midnight last night no trouble had occurred. The strikers retired and camped in the woods half a mile from Mountain Iron.

The citizens have been terrorized by shooting near the mob's camp, and fear an attack.

The Brooklyn Handicap, a stake for horses three years old and upward, will be run over the Brooklyn Jockey Club's course at Gravesend on Tuesday, May 15, about 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The stake is of a guaranteed value of $25,000. The thoroughbreds will contest over a mile and a quarter of ground.

This simple announcement means a great deal to the sporting public, and especially that portion of the community which delights in the equine battle for supremacy on the turf. The day on which the Handicap will be run marks the opening of the racing season in this State, and the folks referred to above are simply starving for a peep at a horse race once more.

The closing of the Winter tracks in New Jersey left racers nothing to do but to dream of the future and indulge in idle speculations concerning the great race on the opening day at Gravesend.

Judging from the lively interest that is being taken in the Handicap, an enormous crowd will visit the track on May 15. Certainly, as a crowd, the odds official expect that this will be the case, for they have made preparations which were never made before. They have caused to be constructed in front of the grand stand a series of steps, just high enough to enable a person to see over the head of his neighbor in front. At least 2,000 persons will be able to find places on the grand stand will thus be enabled to have a good view of the great race.

It is the opinion of turf experts that this year's Handicap is a very open one, and that the race will be a close one. The odds are going well, and an accurate report of the race will be given in the "Evening World."

The candidates are all in exceptionally fine condition. No mother ever bred a better race of horses than the one which child than the trainers on their charges. Old Loantaka, who last year was able to find places on the grand stand in tubs of cold water, is this year as sound as a bell and going as fresh as a two-year-old.

None of the horses has been sick save Lamplighter and Charles, both of whom were at Memphis, where he met and defeated V. Tanenbom and others. Last year he started in twenty-four races, winning thirteen times. Long Beach, Banquet, Lowlander and Hasettall may be classed as doubtful, though as yet there has been no word from them. They would not start.

First on the list is Leigh & Rose's candidate Clifford, a four-year-old brown colt by Bramble, out of Duchess. Clifford will go to the post with an advantage over the others. He has been racing and that fits a horse better than anything else. Clifford's best race this year was at Memphis, where he met and defeated V. Tanenbom and others. Last year he started in twenty-four races, winning thirteen times.
